Description \(revised\)

Your bidding on an extremely nice 1974 Porsche 914. This all original rare bread only has a little over 12K original miles on it. It was part of the Sloan car collection well know for his high end collection of rare and hard to get Porsches. What he's most know for is his low mileage Porsches. The current owner bought this car from collection a couple of years ago. The current owner is in the process of raising capital for a project he doing and finds himself forced to sell this car among others to be listed. This car is extremely clean. The body and interior are in stellar condition for a car with only 12K miles on it. Everything is in working order and ready for Other cars in like conditions have sold for as high as $45-$65K with these kinds of miles. They have sold for this kind of money in arenas such as Barrett Jackson ar The current owner has put less than 10 miles on the car. The car has been stored on a car rack in a climate controlled warehouse. The car is being sold AS IS WHERE condition and no guarantees or warranty's implied. We require a $1500.00 deposit in 48 hours and full payment with in 1 week. If you have more questions please fe contact Semisi: 801-636-5316 Email: semisi@katoacorp.com Thank you for your interest and happy bidding! Thank you for pointing out the incorrect date of vehicl listed this car for a friend and didn't notice the incorrect date. The car is a 1975 NOT a 1974 Upon further discovery and talking with the previous owner, the drivers was repainted at some point. We have always been suspicious of this since we bought the car a couple of years ago. The previous owner contacted me and informed original 1st owner was the one who put on the side trim. We are guessing that the original own delta with a door ding, repainted the drivers side door and then added to avoid future door dings??? If you have further questions feel free to contact us.
